MARINE CITY HIGH SCHOOL

MARINE CITY, MICHIGAN

Throughout the years we shall find solace, strength, hope, and inspiration in the lovely memories that are ours of Miss Baird. Because her unselfishness, courage, compassion, and loyalty will be recorded always in our hearts.

SCHOOL BOARD

Second Row: Donald McDonald, Dr. A. B. Armsbury, Henry Lawrence

Things do not happen in this world, they are brought about, and labor is the foundation of all prosperity.

It has been with interest and concern that we have followed the class of '48 through the grades and up to the parting of the ways. They have met their problems with ambition, with courage, and with character, and aided by the co-operation of a patient, thoughtful and seasoned faculty, the fruits of their labor are here presented with the deepest respect and esteem, because it is the result of their own effort.

PRESIDENT ADDRESS

We are on the threshold of an event which we have looked forward to for many months. This night represents the fulfillment of an ideal which has guided us during our school days. We are thankful that we have had the perseverance to study and work for the completion of our course.

We, the class of nineteen hundred forty eight, wish to extend a cordial welcome to you, our parents, teachers, classmates, and friends, to these graduation exercises.

It may be true that we were not the most outstanding class in every field that has ever experienced this happy moment of graduation, but we have accomplished more than average success in our class and extra curricular activities. As far as winning trophies is concerned, our athletes have not been eminent. Nevertheless they have tried sportsmanship, and their exceptional drive made them a group of athletes that any class can be proud of. This may be shown by the selection of some of our classmates for positions on the All-County basketball and football teams. The coaches who made this possible in our respective high school years were: Mr. Pfingst, Mr. Dresser, Mr. Ketner, and Mr. Murphy.

We have found through our four years of high school training that cooperation, deep, heartfelt cooperation, is indeed a vital factor in the success of a class. We have held this as our byword in all our class activities, and as a result they have all been auspicious.

It has been said that nobody admires a quitter. The man who keeps on trying, even when he has a wonderful reason for quitting, evokes our admiration. Everybody is for him. His exploit gives us an added reason for bravery--for perseverance against odds.

A great man once said, "Tell me your loyalties, and I can tell you what you are." What we do when we are depressed gives a strong clue to what we are.

Our graduation at this time is a result of perseverance in study. May we continue to persevere in the larger loyalties of the school of life.

In looking back over our high school (Continued on the next page)

years, may traditional events stand out as ones of gratification: the blithe J-Hop, accenting spring; the Junior-Senior Banquet, with Bill Read as toastmaster and a host of fine speakers; the memorable Prom; the gay Senior Carnival, an evening of ecstasy for all; the Mistletoe Dance, with the selection of the king and queen of the school as the feature attraction; the Senior Play, the production of which would have been impossible had it not been for the skillful and able direction, the cooperation, and patience of Mrs. Fullwood and Mr. Pfingst, for which we owe many thanks. And then came our most exciting moment, the one thing that will remain the most vivid in our minds, the Senior Trip.

Yes, these felicitous moments are now over and our high school days are now in the past and what lies before us can only be determined by our own toil and self-denial, by sacrifice, aspiration, heroic work, and unfailing courage. I believe our motto: "Not finished, just beginning," is explanatory in itself, and if we are but strong enough to push open the door of opportunity and then enter and take possession, the conclusion to this motto will be fulfilled.

And so we are prepared to leave our high school and may we at this time thank you, our parents, teachers, friends, and especially our sponsors, Mr. Pfingst and Mrs. Fullwood; and now, the class of '48 bids you all a long, a lasting, and friendly farewell. DON SCHUTT PRES.

CLASS HISTORY

A large crowd, consisting of parents, teachers, and students, was gathered for the first game for the class of '48. Penants, showing that we were from M.C.H.S. and the class of '48, were proudly waved high as we looked down the long, hard field of battle at our goal post, gaily decorated, in maroon and white. We had 60 eligible players at the beginning of the game, and we were coached that first quarter by Mr. Marsa and Miss Ruotsala. Francis Tyler was the big captain of our Freshmen squad, with Don Schutt, Marion Jones, Mary Morrison, Bernie Waelens, and Bob Wood as his chief supporters. With a bake sale and two record dances, we made our first small gain down the field.

After a quick shower and pep talk by our coaches Mrs. Bradley and Mr. Plummer, we were back to the grind for the second period. Inspired by the success of our first orchestral dance, we gave another dance and bake sale, thus gaining a first down. Our captain this period was Jack DeLisle, with Bill Read, Lois Blythe, Dorothy Genshow, Bernie Waelens, and Francis Tyler as team mates. At this point in the game, we were at the fifty yard line and our goal didn't look too far off--although we knew the last half would be rugged.

Because of penalties or report cards, there were only 54 members of the team left for the third quarter. Well rested from the half, we were determined to do something this quarter towards reaching our goal. Our team was captained by Dick Walsh with Don Schutt, Lois Blythe, Elaine Turnbull, Bernie Waelens, and Terry Foltanovich making the sensational passes and runs. Our coaches for this quarter were Miss Bruce and Miss Norrington. Our kick-off was good, and giving an orchestral dance and selling personal stationary we completed a second down. Our next major drive was toward the J-Hop, the biggest dance of the year. The field was cleared for action, and choosing "Spring" as the theme for the J-Hop, we made it a big success. Being driven on by our success, we gave the Jr. and Sr. Banquet and Prom, thus reaching the seventy-five yard line and ending the quarter.

A determined team marched on the field for the fourth and last quarter. Our captain was Don Schutt, and his able assistants were Fred McLouth, Dorothy Genshow, Elaine Turnbull, Terry Foltanovich, and Bernie Waelens. Our first play of the final period was our Senior Carnival. It was given the 1st of November and was declared a huge success. Our next gains were made by selling Christmas Cards, giving the annual "Mistletoe Dance", and selling Greeting Cards. Our successful Senior Play, "A Date With Judy", was given the 18th and 19th of March. Next we got in a huddle to decide upon our Senior Trip. A four day cruise on the Noronic to Mackinaw Island was our choice and the date was the 24th of May.

And now as we stand on the 5-yard line, we see before us the goal that we have had in mind for four active periods--Our struggles, our gains, our ups and our downs will be reflected in the diploma that waits for us at the Maroon and White goal-post. The fight is almost over, and we shall soon chalk up a victory for our side. The game will be finished-yet beginning for us will be the life schedule for which we'll need all the skill, exdurance, and initiative we've cultivated in our four long periods.

Our thanks to you Mrs. Fullwood and Mr. Pfingst for coaching us in this last significant period, and to our parents, faculty, and friends, for your loyal and encouraging support in this victorious march down the field--

When the last whistle blows, this football game will be recorded in the annals of M.C. High. And may the annals say that, "we fought the good fight."

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Senior Class of '48 presented their Senior Play, "A DATE WITH JUDY", the 18th and 19th of March. It was under the direction of Mr. Ralph Pfingst and Mrs. Louise Fullwood and was declared a huge success.

The play cast included: Judy Foster, a teen age miss-TERRY FOLTANOVICH; Melvin Foster, her father-BOB LANGELL; Dora Foster, her mother-AUDREY MILLER; Randolph Foster, her younger brother-DON SCHUTT; Hannah, the maid-BETTY MCNIFF; Barabara Winsocket, Judy's friend-JERRY GREGORY; Oogie Pringle, the man in Judy's life-BUB FISHER; Mitze Hoffman, another of Judy's friend-LOIS BLYTHE; Mr. Martindale, a theatrical producer-BILL READ; Mrs. Hotchkiss, the laundry woman-ELAINE TURNBULL; Elois Hotchkiss, her daughter, who elocutes-JANE SHEARER; Mrs. Shultzhammer, of the P.T.A.-VIRGINIA BUCKLER; Rexford Meredith O'Connor, a new boy in town-FRED MCLOUTH; Susie, Rex's kid sister-CATHERINE KREUSEL.

The story opens with Judy determined to beat the slacks off Tootsie Whiteman by soliciting contributions to the Community Relief Fund-the winner to be Queen and lead the grand march at the school dance. Soliciting is too slow, however, and she enters a whole raft of contests, as a means of raising some quick money-using her parent's names. The results are disastrous. Judy's father wins honorable mention in a nation-wide contest for the most "kissable lips." But Judy is not one to give up easily. She tries her hand at writing and concocts a "True Confession" script gets mixed up with Mrs. Foster's speech to the P.T.A., and when she is unable to give the speech herself, it is read for her. Judy', meanwhile, has been trying to interest a theatrical producer in giving her and Mitze jobs as actresses. They evendo a scene from the high school spring play for the astonished producer. In the midst of their act, Mrs. Schlutzhammer sweeps in, waving the "Confession Manuscript" and demanding that Mrs. Foster resign from the P. T. A. They'll have no bigamist in their organization! On top of this, Oogie barges in -and tells Judy he's tired of waiting for her to make up her mind.

He's accepted Tootsie Whiteman's invitation to the dance. Judy practically dissolves in tears. Life has reached tragic proportions for Judy, but before the evening is over she almost makes a new conquest, is mixed up in a near elopement-and, finally, in a last minute mad rush, goes to the dance with Oogie. And, believe it or not, she is crowned Queen, too, as Tootsie has a bad case of the hives.

Charlotte Carman was in charge of advertising and Con Cohrs handled the tickets. The student directors were Jean Hedt and Dorothy Genshow with Dorothy Ann Snyder as property manager. The stage managers Ken Davidson, Larry Lang, and Francis Tyler did an excellent job with the lights, sound effects, and other chores. The programs were under the supervision of Bob Langell.

Between acts, Catherine Kreusel sang "Easter Parade", and Elease Easterling sang "Now is the Hour."

CLASS GIFTATORY

For Delbert Kaufman, a brown eyed lad,
Cheerful, though his appearance is sad,
We give this Charles Atlas Course
In Hopes he'll soon be strong as a horse.

This little whistle becomes Don Horn's lot,
Although a musician we know he is not.
Now when a girl happens to go by
Don can beckon in the wink of an eye.

To Fred McLouth, who likes to live,
This beautiful bailing can we give.
Now when you see him in his boat,
Remember it was we who kept him afloat.

For Bobby Hyslop some stilts we have
Tho' they may never his ego save.
But even tho' against storm he is hurl'd,
He'll have the assurance of being up in the world.

For Jack DeLisle we have a candle,
Although it's hot for him to handle.
On this his very life depends
For, you see, it will burn at both ends.

A certificate of merit we proudly award
To a student whose attitude is never bored.
Elease Easterling, we congratulate you;
Your absences from classes are very few.

Bud Fisher, the adverturer, we are told
To Alaska will go in search of gold.
This map will guide him on his journey bold
So he will return before he is too old.

This football hero to Terry we give
Without him, she probably couldn't live.
No longer that man must she land
For now she'll be busy holding his hand.

To Virginia Love we give this rolling pin
That usually was kept in the flour bin.
We know she'll use this for her luscious pies,
But she can also use this to blacken his eyes.

Don Cohrs, we present you with this old broom.
With it, our fair city you can groom.
In this way you'll be helping our fair town,
And you won't be letting your poor Dad down.

To a girl who is liked and loved by us all,
The one who is queen at every ball,
We give you this, Audrey Miller, and may you hand it down,
To your future daughters, this lovely crown.

To Fred Misany, leader of the Shea Road Gang,
A boy who about girls doesn't give a hang.
We give you this doctrine not written by Pres. Truman,
But taken from SEVENTEEN proving that girls are really human.

Oh yes, for Billyboy Read, the casanova of them all
Who for him he thinks all the girls will fall,
We present to him this bottle of Listerine
To rid him of tobacco breath and his use of Dentyne.

For Don Schutt who is a swell "Joe", it's plain to see,
A guy who always is willing to help no matter what may be,
Who has the skill to shuffle and drag his feet in a hurry,
We award to you this jitterbug certificate from Arthur Murray.

To the Romeo hunter of the country lane
We award this and hope it's not in vain.
We give this box of caps to Larry Lang.
Out of it, he should surely get a bang.

To Bob Langell who's always handing out free cigarettes
Which are bummed by the lousy poolroom rats.
We give him this, and may it be
His favorite brand, a pack of Rawleigh's 903.

To Kirby Lee who's always playing pool,
Whether it's a day of rest or a day of school,
We award him this to keep him from being blue,
Imported from Chatam's, some pool chalk, so he won't miscue.

To that Senior lass
Who is in that spirited class,
We present this pack of bubble gum to show,
Colleen Lyons, some bubbles she can blow.

For Dick Morningstar, a guy to fear,
Especially when he puts his car in high gear,
A guy who is usually, but not always late,
We give you this clock so you'll be on time for your date.

For Jane Shearer who lives up on the river afar
And has not transportation to school, not even a car.
We give her something to get her here afloat
A brand new and unsinkable boat.

To a girl who is a joy to meet,
One who really loves the sweet,
To you, Dorothy Ann, old top,
We give this all-day lollypop.

To that senior girl who is so kind,
And really quite musically inclined--
To Dorothy Genshow who plays music and we've never bored
We give her this, one and only, "the lost cord."

To Jerry Gregory that winsome girl
Whose blond hair really does curl.
We give her this and it's our best bet
She can land her men with this fish net.

To Colleen Groff, a feminine Jim Brady,
We give something desired to this dear lady,
A trinket that she will adore,
A diamond ring and nothing more.

To Cal Hasler, who I hope doesn't think us cad,
 We give him a gift that shouldn't make him mad,
 For at his job the windows clean he must keep,
 And out of this bottle window cleaner he can seep.

For Jean Hedt, who is always missing the bus
 We give her something to remind her not to cuss
 And, for this gift, I don't think we're libel
 So, here it is Jean, a Miniature bible.

To Marion Jones who has a giggly mouth
 We give her this gift so she can go South.
 To Paradise, she says,
 Where a boy is a boy and not a quack.
 Here it is, a bus ticket to Algonac.

To a boy who really loves the game,
 Who plays it har, yet doesn't win fame.
 To Karl Kaltz, liked by all,
 We give this, a cherished baseball.

To that red-headed lad, who lives far away,
 And in the summer probably pitches hay,
 So that all of his energy the sun won't draw,
 We give to Lyle Kammer this hat of straw.

To Katherine Kreusel, the girl in the gilded cage,
 We give her this so she can make the theatre page.
 Although it won't improve her beautiful voice, it's agreed,
 We give it to her anyway, a package of bird seed.

To Betty McNiff, that talented artist,
 Who is a non believer of anti-socialist.
 To you, we aren't trying to give the "Bum's rush"--
 We just want to give you this paint brush.

Chloe Blythe, our scandal sheet
 Editor-in-Chief,
 Has seen lots of happiness
 And a little grief.
 We are happy to present you with this pen,
 So when you're far away at College,
 You can write us of your knowledge.

To Elaine Turnbull, the typist's dream,
 We give you this, funny may it seems,
 To use when your typewriter will not rush
 Here it is, a typewriter brush.

To Ken Davidson, who surely isn't a lug.
 We award you this sturdy, handy mug
 So when the weather becomes hotter,
 He can fill it with pure clean water.

To Bernie Erdmann, that tall, quiet lad,
 Who doesn't look merry and yet never seems sad,
 We give you this to help you walk,
 A wooden cane made from an old tree stalk.

To Shirley Bantien, whose hair is curly
 We give you this to keep your teeth pearly,
 Here it is, and may it make you rate,
 A small size box of Colgate.

To keep her hair shiny
 And so she'll look real finey,
 To Gladys Elzholz, the St. Clair boy8s dream
 We give this jar of Luster Creama.

For Eriscie Tyler, our 97 lb. weakling,
 Who never complains, tho' a miracle he's seeking
 We have a horse pill the size of a quarter;
 When dessolved in warm water, they make a fine mortar.

Shoddy Carman, tho' seldom is seen,
 Labors all evening over a ticket machine.
 And so, for when she relaxes, we give her with pride
 Two admission tickets so she'll at last get inside.

For Bernie Waelens we have some glasses,
 With the hope that they will show
 Our Loyal Wildcat where to go
 While on the field when tackling lassens.

For Dick Walsh, the man of many orations,
 We have this soap box to stand upon
 While lecturing his grand-children
 On the art of laundering nylon.

Because Alma Watson lives across the river,
 And you Ken Varndell, can't rely on your liver,
 The Junior Class takes pride in presenting to you
 This brand new supersonic, Chief Waldo Canoe.

For Joyce Carroll, who works in a restaurant
 And wears all of those hunter's duds,
 We present this little salt shaker
 So she may salt her spuds.

We give to Ginny Buckler
 To rouse up all her joys,
 This over-grown lasso
 To help her rope some boys.

The 1947-48 basketball season got under way with three regulars returning from last year's team. In the first game against Lakeshore the Orange and Black looked like a veterans' team. Continually they stopped Lakeshore from even moving the ball across the ten second line and time after time they stalled the ball to go racing down the floor to sink a dog shot. As the game drew nearer the ending whistle, and Lakeshore became hurried to get into the game, these tactics of M.C. became even more pronounced. The game ended with the Wildcats on the long end of a 33-24 score. DeLisle led the Mariners with 10 points. This was a non-county game.

The second game of the season, also non-county, was played on the Jefferson Street Gym court. New Baltimore brought a fast team with them and used a fast break off the zone (Continued on pp32)

Marine City started training in early September under a new coaching staff. Our head coach, Ralph Pflingst, was far from new at the game of football. Most of the Seniors had played under him on his championship team of '45. Coach Ketner, our head basketball and assistant football coach, was new, however, to the boys, but through his friendly fashion he was soon known. Under their keen management Marine City managed to take second place honors in the St. Clair County League. (continued on pp. 31)

This year the council sponsored dances, assemblies, and a scrap drive which helped pay for new stage curtains for the Jefferson Street Gym. The Student Council also had four pictures framed for the school.

Our thanks to the Student Council this year for its help in ironing out school problems and may it continue to be successful throughout the coming years.

CHEERLEADERS

Estelle Furtaw, Joan Hamilton, Helen Wood, Gretchen Becker, Dona Bradford, Theresa Foltanovich.

We tip our hats to the cheerleaders on the fine work they have done this year. They sold at games, gave dances and worked out other money-making projects to pay for the new uniforms.

We also want to congratulate the three new cheerleaders that were chosen to cheer for the second team: Pat Ogden, Phyllis Jolin, and Dorothy Kammer.

The cheerleaders gave five pep assemblies and they were always out there backing the team. Nice going, cheerleaders!

In 1928 Marine City High School acquired a chapter of the National Honor Society. This Society recognizes four qualities: Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service as the most essential in a fine citizen. In order to promote these qualities it recognizes students who excel in them and accepts them as members of the society.

Every year ten per cent of the Juniors and fifteen per cent of the Seniors, who are made eligible by their scholarship, and the faculty. The ones receiving the highest ratings are awarded membership to the society, one of the highest honors conferred upon a high school student.

The National Athletic Scholarship Society is limited to boys earning an athletic letter in a major sport and whose scholastic average for three consecutive semesters is higher than the average of the school. These boys are chosen by the members of the coaching staff and school administration and are those who have exemplified the highest citizenship and sportsmanship on the athletic field and in every day life.

The members participated in many activities where they played and marched, such as: Memorial Day, The Mardi Gras, Sperry's Santa Claus Parade, and the Teacher's Institute. There are three divisions of the chorus; they are: the mixed chorus, the girls' glee club, and the boys' quartet. On April 23rd the chorus joined with the band in giving the Band and Vocal Festival and on May 4th participated in the Tuesday Musical. The boys' quartet furnished music for Baccalaureate.

new Ward Cottrell court in a game featuring poor shooting on both teams. The score was 5 all at the end of the first quarter, but M.C.H.S. made 8 points to the Blue and White's 3 in the second quarter and maintained a lead the rest of the game. McLouth made 11 points in helping the Wildcats to a 22-18 victory.

On February 3rd the Mariners lost their second game to St. Stephens in a close one 33-27. The Wildcats ran the show in the first half, outscoring and out playing them. The third quarter was different though, and when the quarter ended, it was M.C. 17 St. Stephens 23. Each scored 10 points in the fourth period. Christensen led the way with 7 points.

The next game with Marysville featured fast passing and good shooting on Marysville's part. The Wildcats played good ball in the first half but were jinxed by bad shooting and thus unable to match a high powered Blue and White five. The Mariners took many good shots from the field but missed too regularly to maintain an even standing. The whistle sounded with the Orange and Black on the bottom--the score 60-21.

Richmond trucked to M.C. for the next one and walked away the winners 38-20. The same old jinx of not being able to hit the basket tailed us again, and if games were won on good shots missed then the Orange and Black would have been the victors. This game showed a loose defense and fast break with both teams taking many shots but Richmond hitting a lot better percentage.

The Wildcats came to life in their next game against Holy Cross. The Mariners took the lead in the first quarter on a 7 to 3 score and maintained a comfortable lead through the rest of the game. With Kaufman, McLouth, DeLisle, and Christensen contributing 10, 9, 6, and 6 points respectively the Mariners were able to conquer Holy Cross by the score of 39-28.

Our second game with St. Clair was a replica of the first--only the score was not as close. Both teams were out with an extra special effort to win and the game was fast and rough all the way through. This can be vouched for by the number of fouls committed, 38, to be exact. St. Clair attempted 22 and made 13 while Marine City attempted 16 and made 5. The free throws again made the big difference in the win and loss column, for the Wildcats out scored the Red and Blue from the field 12-11. Kaufman was high point man for the Mariners with 11 points. The final score was Marine City 29, St. Clair 35.

The Orange and Black played their last county game on Ward Cottrell court against the Algonac Muskrats. This game drew the biggest crowd of the season. The first quarter was played on even terms with both teams scoring 9 points. The second quarter was a little different though, and our Wildcats made 13 points to Algonac's 5 to walk into the dressing room at the half leading 22-14. Algonac came back strong in the third and fourth quarters to score 11 in both while the Orange and Black were pumping in 9 and 10. The Wildcats showed their best form of the season in beating the Muskrats 36 to 34. Kaufman made an effort and came through with 14 points for the winners.

Bill Read made the All-County second team and Jack DeLisle made honorable mention. Five members of the team are graduating this year; Fred McLouth, Delbert Kaufman, Jack DeLisle, Bill Read, and Francis Tyler. We wish to extend the best of luck to next year's team and hope that they might come out on top.

As the Annul goes to press our baseball team has only played one game. They defeated St. Clair 4 to 3, at Ward Cottrell Park.

We have 10 boys returning from the '47 season to give us a fairly strong team. We shall be able to give any team a run for their money, and hope our team has a very successful season. Good Luck boys.
